Under-trials.

302. *MR. A. P. UDAYABHANU (Karunagapalli cum Kartikapalli): Will the Government be pleased to state whether there is any provision for providing clean clothes to the under-trials?

MR. S. PARTHASARATHI AIYENGAR: Yes.

MR. A. P. UDAYABHANU: May I know what the provision is?

MR. S. PARTHASARATHI AIYANGAR: The provision is to give them clean clothing. There is a prescribed rate also for that. Prisoners will be allowed to use their own clothes, excepting the very poor who will be given a set consisting of two shirts, two banians, two clothes etc. Provision is also made for a dhobi to wash the same.

MR. T. K. NARAYANA PILLAI: May I know whether that provision is enforced?

MR. S. PARTHASARATHI AIYANGAR: That is my information.

MR. T. K. NARAYANA PILLAI: May I know whether the Inspector General of Police has satisfied himself that this provision is being enforced?

MR. S. PARTHASARATHI AIYANGAR: It has not so far arisen. Now that the point has arisen, I will satisfy myself whether that provision is being given effect to.
